This must be downloaded along with your application, signed and included with your application. Please send original copy only.

As an entrant in the 2022 Loren L. Zachary National Vocal Competition you are signing your name here and on the application agreeing that you have read and understood the following:

The Loren L. Zachary Society for the Performing Arts is not responsible if any singer becomes infected with the COVID-19 or any other communicable disease while taking part in this competition. Each applicant enters this competition understanding the risks and the possibility of becoming exposed to the virus.

There will be no demand placed upon the Loren L. Zachary Society for the Performing Arts as a result of being exposed to COVID-19 or by contracting the disease during the competition.

Each singer agrees to observe the following health precautions by signing both the application and this Waiver: wearing a face mask when not singing, presenting your COVID-19 vaccination card and accepting a non-touch temperature check upon arrival at the competition.
