PART II

FINAL AWARDS:

One of the purposes of the top awards is to provide singers with financial assistance with the possibility of making a European audition tour and the goal of obtaining a long-term contract in an opera house. If a singer prefers not to travel to Europe, or has prior commitments, he or she is still eligible to enter this Competition and compete for all cash awards. The Top Award ranges from $15,000 to $18,000 and approximately $50,000 will be distributed amongst the Finalists. Each Finalist will receive a minimum of $2,000.

PART III

COMPETITION RULES - PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

- A. AGE AND ELIGIBILITY: The Competition is open to singers ages of 21-35, who are within these ages at the time of the signing the Application. Any contestant who was a recipient of any of the top five cash awards from the Loren L. Zachary Society National Vocal Competition is excluded from further participation in this or any future Competition sponsored by the Society. Singers who are currently under contract in a European opera house, or singers who have had a long-term contract in a European opera house are also not eligible to enter this Competition. Applicants are open to citizens and lawful residents of the United States and Canada
- B. SPONSOR DEFINED: A "Sponsor" is a person who is familiar with the applicants vocal ability in opera, i.e. vocal coach, voice teacher, conductor, manager, agent, or musical authority. The sponsors NAME, ADDRESS, AND TELEPHONE NUMBER MUST APPEAR on the application. Singers must have voices with operatic quality and proper operatic training.

- C. REQUIRED ARIAS: Singers must choose 6 operatic arias (no oratorio) that you are prepared to sing. Once the arias are submitted on the Application, no changes are permitted. Singers should be prepared to sing any or all of the 6 arias listed at all phases of the Competition. Two to three languages must be included in the 6 arias listed and the 6 arias must be chosen from the standard regularly performed opera repertoire showing contrasting moods and styles. At the preliminary auditions, you may sing the first aria of your choice and you may be asked to sing the entire aria or a portion thereof. Arias should not exceed 5 minutes and excessively long arias are not advised. All arias must be memorized in the original language and key, and an art song or operetta aria is acceptable for the German language. Arias in English are not preferred. Do not include arias from works after 1926.

Two arias for the Grand Finals Concert will be selected from the six arias listed on the application. Arias selected for the Grand Finals Concert will be chosen by the competition management. Arias in English will not be considered for the Final Competition.

- D. ACCOMPANIST: An accompanist will be provided for all auditions at no charge. Applicants may bring their own accompanist to the preliminary auditions only, but this must be indicated in the appropriate space on the Application. The audition time is based on this information and the accompanist is scheduled accordingly. (Application Line 6.) At the preliminary auditions in New York only, singers who bring their own accompanists may be scheduled at the end of the audition day.
- E. AUDITION APPOINTMENT TIME: Each singer will be scheduled an audition time and will be notified two weeks after the deadline date. The audition time is guaranteed only if the Application is completed correctly, the necessary papers attached and received by the deadline. If transportation or other valid reason makes it necessary for a specific audition day or time, requests must be made on the Application, Line 8, "Special Requests." After you enter the competition and you are awaiting notification and if you do not receive a notice within two weeks following the submission deadline, please call 310-276-2731. Do not contact us by Email.
- A correctly completed application with application fee will guarantee an audition.
- F. MAILING: Applications should be mailed to the Loren L. Zachary Society, 2250 Gloaming Way, Beverly Hills, CA 90210-1717. Applications by facsimile or Email are not acceptable. Further information call (310) 276-2731.
